Market Closing-In late afternoon market sold off on report that the Government intended to call for volinteer army of 250,000 men and that Villa intended to assume the aggressive by making a dash across he border into El Paso.

Southern Pacific showed some trength and was helped by the anement by Dow James & Co. that approximately 90 per cent. of the stocks in London it looked as if the very large property interests in Mexico, that fact did not seem to affect its market.

There were no transactions in either Rock Island common or preferred, a fact which seemed to indicate that liquidation in those issues had been completed.

Breiters and Mexican Petroleum broke sharply.

Opening—Affected by weakness in London our market started at a level some what under Wednesday's close, but immediately showed a tendency to recover, there being a good demand on recession. From action of ACID STOMACHS
